

CHAPTER 1

THE GOLDEN HEART PROPHECIES

The Lord Jesus, our Saviour, our friend, our lover wants to tell His Bride about Himself. He wants to reveal His heart to His Beloved.

As the Bride of Christ prepares herself for her wedding celebration and the coming of her Groom to catch her away to the feast, she needs to be reminded of who her Groom is. It has been a long time since His first appearance and proposal to her. Now she is close to the day of consummation and she needs motivation to begin final preparations.

The Golden, loving, gentle Heart of Jesus is being revealed
The Lord wants to reveal His heart. Listen to the wooings of your lover.

The Golden Heart of Jesus:

This revelation was given to me by a prophecy from the Lord September 23, 1993.

Write this down:

*I invite you up the slopes of Mount Alverna to meet me in the cleft of the rock
Here I will reveal to you the secrets of My Infinite Love, My Sacred Heart and My Mercy without end.*

*I am the Resurrection and The Life
All who believe in me will have life in its abundance
All who sit at my feet I will bless, guide and protect.*

*My son, my little lamb
I have called you up this mountain as I called Francis before you
I called him to bless him and to give him the courage to face his greatest trial
I shared with him there secrets which are never to be told.
I call you, my son to tell you secrets which must remain hidden no longer.*

*You (both) are my heralds
You have proven yourselves faithful in little things
You have shown your obedience
You have waited patiently and in faith
Now I give you the charge of great things,
the secret things of the kingdom.*

*I have entrusted to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven with which you are able to unlock many mysteries.
Now I open to you the secrets of My Heart*

I give you My Golden Heart bound with a chain Swallow it!

*In your belly it will produce visions and dreams
It will draw forth My shekinah- glory
It will attract My holy angels and console them
It will glorify My blessed Mother
It will bring peace and security amidst discord.*

*My Golden Heart is chained to My justice
It is inseparable from the power of conviction
Out of your belly will flow My glory and power always attended by My convicting power.*

*I will have My little ones come to Me for mercy
I will console them and shield them and comfort them
but I will have them come to Me!
Call them forth to mourn over their sins
and for the many wounds which cover My Golden Heart*

*To those who repent and lay their sins at the foot of My cross for cleansing in My Blood
My Golden Heart will be a fount of blessing, providence and peace, mercy and forgiveness, healing and help
But to those who deny My Heart its due
My Golden Heart will be a rock of judgement crushing their hearts until they acknowledge My due.*

*I have earned the salvation of My children by My Passion
I come now to demand My right
My holy angels will compel the lost to come to Me to meet Me at My banquet which has been prepared since before the foundation of the World.*

*At My banquet I will reveal My Golden Heart to them
I will show them the many wounds inflicted by them and I will show them My power*

*Those who choose to feast with Me, I will welcome
Those who refuse will be cast out into outer darkness where there is only weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth*

*Rest in peace, abide in Me
I have spoken. I am the Lord.*

The Golden Heart of Jesus releases the anointing for revival, repentance and evangelism. This is necessary for evangelism in Hell. In the years since this was revealed to me, the Lord has shown me some of the operation of His Golden Heart.

The Golden Heart releases the glory of God within us, to the world. Revival is the presence of the glory of God drawing nigh to sinners. We, believers, bring that glory nigh. The release of that glory attracts and consoles the holy angels who themselves draw nigh and compel sinners to come to the banquet/feast which the Lord has prepared. The banquet or feast is what we know as an evangelistic Crusade or a healing meeting. Once drawn, the lost come under the convicting power of Jesus' Golden Heart. They are forced by grace to acknowledge themselves as sinful. Grace to receive salvation from Jesus is also present - backed up by signs, wonders and miracles of healing; both physical and emotional.

Satan's prisoners are compelled to come in to an audience with the Lord. They are given the opportunity to be set free of the devil's bondage and receive salvation.

The anointing of the Golden Heart of Jesus works the same way in Hell. Through one of His servants, the anointing draws nigh. The prisoners (treasures of darkness) are invited to a banquet/crusade where they hear the good news. Once again, grace to choose Jesus is given to them and they are released from Hell if they choose to receive Jesus as Lord.

Satan has a counterfeit of this process. It is called Glamour. It too holds concerts and events to which are drawn, by lust and devils, the lost. There he preaches to them his bad news of rebellion and license. It is the reciprocal of revival.

Jesus has a "heart of gold". That expression is well known and reveals truth. Jesus' Heart is chained to justice. It demands a decision of us. It is not a sentimental or wishy-washy heart. (* When I am asked to bless an object and I present it to the Father in the spirit I see it changed into gold.) Jesus' Heart demands a decision. "Give your life to Me with vows of love and faithfulness or else you will enter into the just reward for your sin/choice.

The Golden Heart of Jesus is a manifestation of the Spirit of Salvation. Just as the Lord can be manifest as the Spirit of Healing, the Spirit of Joy, the Spirit of Victory, so can salvation be present. If so, then the presence of salvation can be entreated, invited, welcomed and co-operated with.

The Blessed Virgin Mary also showed her heart of gold to the visionaries at Beauraing in Belgium in 1933. (See my book 'The Way to Peace and Unity in the Church' for revelation of the golden heart of Mary.)
